

Flip That House with FAUX

Become a part of the first project to combine a popular TV show with a book to benefit Habitat for Humanity.

Promotional postcard

Almost ½ acre, two date palms, country street setting, close to lake

West side with garage, lake behind distant trees

Front: FauxMasters is resurfacing the stucco with amber-gold washes same as Sylvester Stallone's mansion; A structure to cover the air conditioning system was designed by architect to mimic the old well house on the property. We plan to take out the cracked concrete and replace with a new concrete porch the full length of the front and the West side. Free-standing shade cover to extend from covered porch and wrap around house over concrete porch.

East; Finished garage behind covered parking. New pillars will be installed for the parking structure.

Old well house to become playhouse

Behind studio; white fence encloses pool

Guest house as viewed from main house; pool area behind white fence

Rear elevation – main house

From back yard

The spa was removed. Pool emptied; have volunteer to re-plaster pool.
